

Memorandum of Understanding between
Milwaukee Comprehensive Home Visiting Program
(Empowering Families of Milwaukee)

And

Milwaukee County Women, Infants, and Children Programs

This Memorandum of Understanding, dated May 11, 2007, is between the Milwaukee Home Visiting Program (Empowering Families of Milwaukee Program (EFM)) and the Milwaukee County Women, Infants, and Children (WIC) Programs. The purpose of this Memorandum of Understanding is to promote the well-being of mothers and families by identifying clients who may benefit from public health and nutrition programs and services. In entering into this agreement, both parties recognize the need to promote the integration of services, to improve access to health services, and to coordinate public health and community-based maternal and child health programs.

EFM Program Responsibilities

The Empowering Families of Milwaukee Program shall:

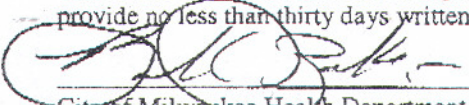

1. Identify and refer women to the WIC Program who may be eligible for public health nutrition services.
2. Review referrals received from WIC and determine EFM eligibility of women referred.
3. Share/submit follow up information of those women and families who have enrolled in EFM.
4. Adhere to all confidentiality regulations as set forth in state and federal law and therefore not disclose information on WIC women and families to third parties.

WIC Program Responsibilities

The WIC Program shall:

1. Identify and refer pregnant women/teenagers, and mothers with infants under 60 days of age living in the targeted zip codes (53204, 53205, 53206, 53208, 53212, and 53233) to EFM.
2. Provide EFM with the name, address, telephone number, date of birth, and relevant health information such as expected delivery date, status of prenatal care, and intent to breastfeed.
3. Inform WIC participants, prior to the release, their information will be shared with EFM.
4. Adhere to all confidentiality regulations as set forth in state and federal law and therefore not disclose information on EFM women and families to third parties.

This Memorandum of Understanding shall remain in effect until terminated by either party, who shall provide no less than thirty days written notice.
